

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 4, 2009

BMH is Pleased to Provide 3D Renderings and Animations that Bring Your Project to Life!

Indianapolis, IN– Bastian Material Handling (BMH) introduces their new rendering and animation services, delivering photo realistic images that will reflect the necessary required technical specifications as well as the intended artistic vision of your project.

BMH is your best choice for outsourced modeling, rendering and animation services. We offer services suitable to a variety of industries and clients, including pharmaceuticals, distribution centers, and real estate developers both commercial and residential. BMH has over ten years of experience creating custom renderings and animations and has a highly skilled staff ready to meet your creative needs.

To learn more about our 3D rendering and animation services visit:

<http://www.bastiansolutions.com/services/renderings-animations/3d-services.asp>

To submit a request for quote visit:

<http://www.bastiansolutions.com/services/renderings-animations/3d-request-for-quote.asp>

BMH is one of the countries largest independent material handling system integrators. They specialize in well engineered, value driven system solutions in the manufacturing and distribution environments. BMH brings together best of breed equipment from the world's leading suppliers with in-house engineering, controls, and project management to ensure their customers' strategic business goals are met.

CONTACT:

Carolyn Manco

Public Relations and Recruiting

Bastian Material Handling

Phone 1-888-575-9992

www.bastiansolutions.com

cmanco@bastiansolutions.com

END